CHAPTER 2 : MEMBERS, OBLIGATIONS & RIGHTS

Members of the Club

All I-MBA current students or I-MBA Alumni can be members of the I-MBA Sailing Club.

Registration Procedure

In order to become a member of the Club, someone has to express his/her interest by filling in the registration form and submit it either to the I-MBA Secretariat, or to the Sailing Captain or via email to the sailing@i-mbalumni.com. The management of the Club has the right to approve or deny the registration form and within a few days from the submission, if approved, he/she will receive a “Welcome” email from the I-MBA Sailing Club, which would verify his/her registration. From this day, he/she is considered as member of the Club and will be informed in a regular basis about all the activities of the Club.

Membership fee

There is no membership fee.

Members' obligations

Everyone who becomes member of the Club automatically accepts the regulations of the Club and agrees to respect the Club and its purpose in every activity or event of the Club. In case of inappropriate behaviors, the management of the Club has the right to exclude a member from an activity/event of the Club or even remove him/her from the I-MBA Sailing Club Community.

CHAPTER 3 : MANAGEMENT OF THE CLUB

The Sailing Captain

The I-MBA Sailing Club is managed by the Sailing Captain. The Sailing Captain must be either an I-MBA current student or a member of the I-MBA Alumni. The role of the Sailing Captain is to promote the Club to the I-MBA students and Alumni, to organize various sailing and other activities throughout the year and to build an I-MBA Sailing Team which can participate in local and international sailing races. The Sailing Captain has to inform the President of the I-MBA Alumni Association for all issues of the Club, whenever he/she is asked to do so. All Sailing Captains and the President of the I-MBA Alumni Association are considered as honorary members of the Club.

Elections of the Sailing Captain

Every year, an I-Sailing Meeting is organized, in order to discuss about various issues of the Club and elect the new Sailing Captain. Every member of the Club can express his/her interest to become candidate for the role of the Sailing Captain; all candidates must be either suggested or approved by the Sailing Captain of the Club and/or the honorary members of the Club. The final candidates are announced to all members of the Club and the new Sailing Captain is elected by the members of the Club. In case of unexpected circumstances, the President of the I-MBA Alumni can decide to announce elections of the new Sailing Captain before the annual I-Sailing Meeting. The Sailing Captain can be re - elected for maximum 3 continuous times.

The Sailing Assistant

The Sailing Captain may choose a Sailing Assistant, who is going to help him/her in the organization of the activities/events of the Club. The Sailing Assistant must be either an I-MBA current student or a member of the I-MBA Alumni.
